1 "THE COURT: Okay. You know, look, folks, you have to 2 understand. I know that I got this case fairly recently and 3 there's a long history to it. But I have to advise you folks
4 that you need to get an attorney or you're going to have to 5 represent yourselves."

6
7 Exhibit A1 Page 9, line 2-24:

8
9 "THE COURT: Are you going to represent yourselves?
10 (Accommodation Party) MR. BOSSINGHAM: We conditionally
11 accept the offer, judge, on proof of claim that counsel is even needed in 12 light of the ongoing private administrative record before this Court 13 and on proof of claim that there is not a request before this 14 Court to continue the public proceedings pending the 15 completion of the ongoing private administrative process,
16 which in all likelihood will set off, settle and resolve this 17 matter without wasting valuable public resources.

18 -----
19 (The Accommodation Party(s) then left the court room, the rest of the 20 recordings in this case took place with only the Court, Court officers, 21 Transcriptionist and the Attorneys Representing the Plaintiff, in the Court 22 room:)

24
25 MR. CARBAJAL: Your Honor, the government would ask 26 for a finding that -- from the Court that the defendants have 27 waived their right to counsel by their conduct.

28 THE COURT: I agree. Based upon their continuing
